

Raising Capital Today Might Be the Smartest Move You Make.

The tightening of the capital markets in combination with the recession may have a significant impact on your cash flow needs today or in the next 12 months.

DW Healthcare Partners can be a timely partner because we:

- Have considerable capital available for investment.
- Invest exclusively in healthcare companies.
- Are flexible in the types of investments we make.
- Evaluate investment decisions quickly.

Whether in preparation for some tough times to come, or to acquire a competitor or expand into new markets and product lines while your competitors hunker down, DWHP can be your capital source and partner.
